Barbara Bettin, President and CEO of the Lincoln YMCA, stated: “We have been blessed to have strong volunteer leadership and guidance at a time when the Lincoln YMCA is expanding its services and charitable impact in our community. We are extremely grateful for the vision and the generosity of both past and current board members. Their efforts have unquestionably contributed to making Lincoln a better place to live and raise children through the quality YMCA facilities and programs.”

The Lincoln YMCA is a charitable non-profit organization. In 2010, it awarded more than $1,221,000 in services and financial assistance to residents of Lincoln and Lancaster County in order to make the opportunity of participating in the YMCA possible.

The Lincoln YMCA currently has four membership centers: Cooper, Downtown, Northeast and the new Fallbrook YMCA; and two program centers: Youth Sports and Camp Kitaki. Last year, more than 63,000 volunteer or in-kind hours were given to our community through the Lincoln YMCA.
